Presenting a one-of-a-kind opportunity: unique, opulent property that took years to design and build utilizing renowned architect Marvin DeJong and builder Triangle Enterprises. Upon entering the home you are awed by a grand, overbuilt, wrought iron and glass staircase which serves as a divider for the warm living room and the massive chefs kitchen complete with top of the line appliances. An expansive island lends to entertaining while serving as hidden storage, intricate woodwork and a stunning layout must be seen in person to be truly appreciated so feel free to tour noting the impeccable attention to detail throughout. Walk upstairs and you will notice stately handcrafted bookshelves en route to the west facing open air office space. Natural light emanates from all directions due to the large, refined windows. Come see for yourself the moving walls, gym space for the athlete in your family, glass floors, and a floating lounge. Gigantic space abounds complemented by mahogany clad walls, clean lines, custom cabinetry, a copper roof on both the home and garage along with heated flooring on all three levels providing comfort and elegance combined with functional living.
